

Alcohol Harm and Reduction

Amnesia, increased risk of suicide, Wernicke's Encephalopathy Korsakov's Syndrome

Reduce intake
Maintain good diet
Refer to medical treatment for Thiamine supplements

Fatty liver, liver disease

Reduce intake; don't mix with cocaine, have a liver test

General:

Count units; drink within safe limits.
Have alcohol-free days;
Address alcohol-related risky behaviours.
Don't mix with opiates, benzos, GHB, stimulants, Ketamine Do not stop drinking suddenly if dependent.

Risk of accidents, falls, trauma Avoid risky drinking environments, extinguish naked flames at night, don't drive

Gastritis, stomach ulcers

Don't drink on empty stomach, seek medical help for treatment

Increased risk of unsafe sex

Use of condoms

Foetal Alcohol Syndrome

Current advice – abstain during pregnancy or when trying to conceive